

PALE ALE

A new version of an American classic. Our pale ale bursts with citrus and herbal hop aroma and flavor, featuring the newly discovered Amarillo hop variety – along with generous Perle and Cascade hops.

Made with English Pale, Munich, Vienna, and Crystal malts, this beer gives a great malty body with a cleansing hop finish.

DOS PERROS

Many Mexican beer styles today are descendants of old Austrian styles, from when Austria ruled Mexico in the late 19th century. Our Dos Perros is made with German Munich malt, English Pale malt, and Chocolate malt, and hopped with Perle and Saaz hops. To lighten the body, as many Mexican brewers do, we add a small portion of flaked maize. The result is a wonderfully bready malt aroma, balanced with some maize sweetness and a noble hop finish.

SUE

The south is famous for smoking almost everything.
Why not a beer?

A rich, smoky, malt bomb of a beer, with mellow smokiness coming from the barley malts smoked with cherry wood, and assertive bitterness from Galena and Perle hops to cleanse the finish.

We can't believe it's been 15 years, either!
To recognize this milestone, we brewed a refreshing wheat ale, low in bitterness but full of juicy, citrus hop notes from dry-hopping with Denali and Sabro hops, and running the beer through our Hop Extractor machine.
